

Director, Clinical Operations, Williams Lake Interior Health Authority

Interior Health (IH) is the regional health authority serving a population of over 801,000 people in the Southern Interior of British Columbia. It is one of British Columbia's five regional health authorities that govern, plan and deliver healthcare services within their geographical areas. Interior Health provides a wide range of integrated health-care programs and services. Their vision is to set new standards of excellence in the delivery of health services in the Province of British Columbia.

Interior Health has an exciting Director opportunity for a seasoned healthcare leader, located in Williams Lake, in the spectacular Cariboo Chilcotin region. The Director, Clinical Operations will oversee Cariboo Memorial Hospital (CMH) and Williams Lake mental health and community programs. As part of this leadership role, the Director also will lead the CMH hospital redevelopment project, which includes a three-story new addition to the hospital and renovations to parts of the current facility.

Working closely with the Medical leadership of these programs and services, the Director oversees effective daily operations by establishing the operational framework and infrastructure needed to support planning, service delivery and allocation and management of all physical, human and financial resources. Core to this role will be fostering relationships with myriad local First Nations communities, providing visible leadership that coalesces the team and builds culture, and focuses on patient and family centred care that supports the continuous improvement of care processes.

The new Director will be a systems-thinking healthcare Director or senior Manager with 10 years of experience in a clinical or operations leadership role in a hospital or community setting. The preferred candidate is a resourceful, innovative, outside-the-box thinker capable of working as a team player with colleagues and community partners in identifying service delivery models to ensure seamless integration of services, and functions. The ideal candidate brings outstanding team leadership and interpersonal skills capable of coalescing teams and building a strong culture.

This role is located in Williams Lake, located in the breathtaking Cariboo region of British Columbia. Home to rugged natural beauty and abundant sunshine, this area is truly an outdoor enthusiast's dream.
